2. Basis of contract

- 2.1 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Services in accordance with these Conditions.

- 2.3 Any samples, drawings, descriptive matter or advertising issued by the Supplier, and any descriptions or illustrations contained in the Supplier's catalogues or brochures, are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Services described in them. 3. User subscriptions for the Service

3.1 Subject to the Customer purchasing the User Subscriptions in accordance with clause 4.3 and clause 11.1, the restrictions set out in this clause 3 and the other terms and conditions of the Contract, the Supplier hereby grants to the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable right, without the right to grant sublicences, to permit the Authorised Users to use the Services and the Documentation during the Subscription Term solely for the Customer's internal business operations.

the Services and the Documentation to such additional Authorised Users in accordance with the provisions of the Contract.

Where the Supplier approves the request, the Supplier shall activate the additional User Subscriptions as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 5 Business Days of its approval of the Customer's request.
- 4.3 If the Supplier approves the Customer's request to purchase additional User Subscriptions, the Customer shall, within 30 days of the date of the Supplier's invoice, pay to the Supplier the relevant fees for such additional User Subscriptions as set out in the XER Online Contract Summary and, if such additional User Subscriptions are purchased by the Customer part way through the Initial Subscription Term or any Renewal Period (as applicable), such fees shall be pro-rated from the date of activation by the Supplier for the remainder of the Initial Subscription Term or then current Renewal Period (as applicable).

5. Fair Usage

- 5.1 In order to maintain the performance and availability of the Services for all customers, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the total number of Activities permitted under the Contract shall be limited to fifty thousand (50,000) Activities at any one time per Admin User Subscription forming part of the Customer's Services subscription. For clarity:
- (a) the Activities limit in this clause 5.1 shall apply in aggregate across all active projects and schedules within the Customer's Services subscription at the relevant time. By way of example, where the Customer has purchased four (4) Admin User Subscriptions, the maximum permitted usage shall be two hundred thousand (200,000) Activities in total at any one time; and
 - (b) the Activities limit in this clause 5.1 shall not apply to Customers holding an enterprise licence version of the Services subscription, to which an unlimited number of Activities applies.
- 5.2 Where the Customer exceeds the applicable Activities limit specified in clause 5.1, the Supplier reserves the right to charge excess storage fees to the Supplier pursuant to clause 11.5, or suspend the Customer's ability to upload additional projects or schedules using the Services, until such time as the Customer:
- (a) removes or archives sufficient projects to reduce the total Activity count below the applicable Activities limit; or

Date	23/07/2026

- (b) purchases sufficient additional Admin User Subscriptions pursuant to clause 4.3.

The Customer shall comply with any reasonable instructions issued by the Supplier under this clause 5.2.

- 5.3 The Supplier may vary the Activities limit in clause 5.1 on not less than thirty (30) days' written notice, provided that any such variation is reasonable and necessary to safeguard the performance and availability of the Services.

6. Services

- 6.1 The Supplier shall, during the Subscription Term, provide the Services and make available the Documentation to the Customer on and subject to the terms of the Contract.

- 6.2 The Supplier shall use commercially reasonable endeavours to make the Services available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except for:

- (a) planned maintenance carried out during the maintenance window of 10.00 pm to 2.00 am UK time; and
- (b) unscheduled maintenance performed outside Normal Business Hours, provided that the Supplier has used reasonable endeavours to give the Customer at least 6 Normal Business Hours' notice in advance.

- 6.3 The Supplier will, as part of the Services and at no additional cost to the Customer provide the Customer with the Supplier's standard customer support services during Normal Business Hours in accordance with the Supplier's Support Services Policy in effect at the time that the Services are provided. The Supplier may amend the Support Services Policy in its sole and absolute discretion from time to time. The Customer may purchase enhanced support services separately at the Supplier's then current rates.

- 6.4 The Customer acknowledges that the Services comprise a standard commercial software platform made available on a subscription basis. The functionality, features and capabilities of the Services are those made available by the Supplier at the Commencement Date and as subsequently updated by the Supplier from time to time. The Customer is responsible for assessing whether the Services are suitable for its intended use prior to entering into the Contract.

- 6.5 The Supplier welcomes suggestions for new features and improvements. However, unless expressly agreed in writing, the Contract does not oblige the Supplier to develop, modify or customise the Services to meet the Customer's individual requirements. Any bespoke development, integrations, consultancy or custom functionality requested by the Customer shall be subject to separate discussion, the Supplier's development capacity, commercial agreement and any applicable additional charges.

7. Customer data

- 7.1 The Customer shall own all right, title and interest in and to all of the Customer Data that is not personal data and shall have sole responsibility for the legality, reliability, integrity, accuracy and quality of all such Customer Data.
- 7.2 The Supplier shall follow its archiving procedures for Customer Data as set out in its Back-Up Policy available at <https://xer-online.com> (or such other website address as may be notified to the Customer from time to time), as such document may be amended by the Supplier in its sole discretion from time to time. In the event of any loss or damage to Customer Data, the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy against the Supplier shall be for the Supplier to use reasonable commercial endeavours to restore the lost or damaged Customer Data from the latest back-up of such Customer Data maintained by the Supplier in accordance with the archiving procedure described in its Back-Up Policy. The Supplier shall not be responsible for any loss, destruction, alteration or disclosure of Customer Data caused by any third party (except those third parties sub-contracted by the Supplier to perform services related to Customer Data maintenance and back-up for which it shall remain fully liable under clause 7.9).
- 7.3 The Supplier shall, in providing the Services, comply with its Privacy Policy relating to the privacy and security of the Customer Data available at <https://xer-online.com> (or such other website address as may be notified to the Customer from time to time), as such document may be amended from time to time by the Supplier in its sole discretion.
- 7.4 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This clause 7 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations or rights under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 7.5 The parties acknowledge that:
- (a) if the Supplier processes any personal data on the Customer's behalf when performing its obligations under the Contract, the Customer is the controller and the Supplier is the processor for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation.
 - (b) the personal data may be transferred or stored outside the EEA or the country where the Customer and the Authorised Users are located in order to carry out the Services and the Supplier's other obligations under the Contract.

- 7.6 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 7.4, the Customer will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the personal data to the Supplier for the duration and purposes of the Contract so that the Supplier may lawfully use, process and transfer the personal data in accordance with the Contract on the Customer's behalf.
- 7.7 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 7.4, the Supplier shall, in relation to any personal data processed in connection with the performance by the Supplier of its obligations under the Contract:
- (a) process that personal data only on the documented written instructions of the Customer unless the Supplier is required by the laws of any member of the European Union or by the laws of the European Union applicable to the Supplier and/or Domestic UK Law (where Domestic UK Law means the Data Protection Legislation and any other law that applies in the UK) to process personal data (Applicable Laws). Where the Supplier is relying on Applicable Laws as the basis for processing personal data, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Customer of this before performing the processing required by the Applicable Laws unless those Applicable Laws prohibit the Supplier from so notifying the Customer;
 - (b) not transfer any personal data outside of the European Economic Area and the United Kingdom unless the following conditions are fulfilled:
 - (i) the Customer or the Supplier has provided appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer;
 - (ii) the data subject has enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;
 - (iii) the Supplier complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation by providing an adequate level of protection to any personal data that is transferred; and
 - (iv) the Supplier complies with reasonable instructions notified to it in advance by the Customer with respect to the processing of the personal data;
 - (c) assist the Customer, at the Customer's cost, in responding to any request from a data subject and in ensuring compliance with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;
 - (d) notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach;
 - (e) at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return personal data and copies thereof to the Customer on termination of the Contract unless required by Applicable Law to store the personal data (and for these purposes the term "delete" shall mean to put such data beyond use); and

Date	23/07/2026

- (f) maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this clause 7 and immediately inform the Company if, in the opinion of the Supplier, an instruction infringes the Data Protection Legislation.
- 7.8 Each party shall ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures, reviewed and approved by the other party, to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures (those measures may include, where appropriate, pseudonymising and encrypting personal data, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of its systems and services, ensuring that availability of and access to personal data can be restored in a timely manner after an incident, and regularly assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the technical and organisational measures adopted by it).
- 7.9 The Customer consents to the Supplier appointing Amazon Web Services (or any successor service provider from time to time) as a third-party processor of personal data under the Contract. The Supplier confirms that it has entered or (as the case may be) will enter with such the third-party processor(s) into a written agreement incorporating terms which are substantially similar to those set out in this clause 7 and in either case which the Supplier confirms reflect and will continue to reflect the requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. As between the Customer and the Supplier, the Supplier shall remain fully liable for all acts or omissions of any third-party processor appointed by it pursuant to this clause 7.
- 7.10 Either party may, at any time on not less than 30 days' notice, revise this clause 7 by replacing it with any applicable controller to processor standard clauses or similar terms forming part of an applicable certification scheme (which shall apply when replaced by attachment to the Contract).

8. Third party providers

The Customer acknowledges that the Services may enable or assist it to access the website content of, correspond with, and purchase products and services from, third parties via third-party websites and that it does so solely at its own risk. The Supplier makes no representation, warranty or commitment and shall have no liability or obligation whatsoever in relation to the content or use of, or correspondence with, any such third-party website, or any transactions completed, and any contract entered into

Ref	XER-T&C-001
Issue	07
Date	23/07/2026

by the Customer, with any such third party. Any contract entered into and any transaction completed via any third-party website is between the Customer and the relevant third party, and not the Supplier. The Supplier recommends that the Customer refers to the third party's website terms and conditions and privacy policy prior to using the relevant third-party website. The Supplier does not endorse or approve any third-party website nor the content of any of the third-party website made available via the Services.

9. Supplier's obligations

- 9.1 The Supplier undertakes that the Services will be performed substantially in accordance with the Documentation and with reasonable skill and care.
- 9.2 The undertaking at clause shall not apply to the extent of any non-conformance which is caused by use of the Services contrary to the Supplier's instructions, or modification or alteration of the Services by any party other than the Supplier or the Supplier's duly authorised contractors or agents. If the Services do not conform with the foregoing undertaking, Supplier will, at its expense, use all reasonable commercial endeavours to correct any such non-conformance promptly, or provide the Customer with an alternative means of accomplishing the desired performance. Such correction or substitution constitutes the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any breach of the undertaking set out in clause 9.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Supplier:
- (a) does not warrant that the Services will meet all of the Customer's individual business processes, operational requirements or intended outcomes, except where expressly agreed in writing; and
 - (b) is not responsible for any delays, delivery failures, or any other loss or damage resulting from the transfer of data over communications networks and facilities, including the internet, and the Customer acknowledges that the Services and Documentation may be subject to limitations, delays and other problems inherent in the use of such communications facilities.
- 9.3 The Contract shall not prevent the Supplier from entering into similar agreements with third parties, or from independently developing, using, selling or licensing documentation, products and/or services which are similar to those provided under the Contract.
- 9.4 The Supplier warrants that it has and will maintain all necessary licences, consents, and permissions necessary for the performance of its obligations under the Contract.

10. Customer's obligations

The Customer shall:

- (a) ensure that the terms of its Order are complete and accurate;
- (b) provide the Supplier with:

in order to provide the Services, including but not limited to Customer Data, security access information and configuration services;
- (c) without affecting its other obligations under the Contract, comply with all applicable laws and regulations with respect to its activities under the Contract;
- (d) carry out all other Customer responsibilities set out in the Contract in a timely and efficient manner. In the event of any delays in the Customer's provision of such assistance as agreed by the parties, the Supplier may adjust any agreed timetable or delivery schedule as reasonably necessary;
- (e) ensure that the Authorised Users use the Services and the Documentation in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Contract and shall be responsible for any Authorised User's breach of the Contract;
- (f) obtain and shall maintain all necessary licences, consents, and permissions necessary for the Supplier, its contractors and agents to perform their obligations under the Contract, including without limitation the Services;
- (g) ensure that its network and systems comply with the relevant specifications provided by the Supplier from time to time; and
- (h) be, to the extent permitted by law and except as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract, solely responsible for procuring, maintaining and securing its network connections and telecommunications links from its systems to the Supplier's data centres, and all problems, conditions, delays, delivery failures and all other loss or damage arising from or relating to the Customer's network connections or telecommunications links or caused by the internet.

11. Charges and payment

- 11.1 The Customer shall pay the Subscription Fees to the Supplier for the User Subscriptions in accordance with this clause 11 and the XER Online Contract Summary.
- 11.2 The Customer shall on the Commencement Date provide to the Supplier valid, up-to-date and complete credit card details or approved purchase Order information acceptable to the Supplier and any other relevant valid, up-to-date and complete contact and billing details and, if the Customer provides:

- (a) its credit card details to the Supplier, the Customer hereby authorises the Supplier to bill such credit card:

 - (ii) subject to clause 16.1, on the commencement of each Renewal Period for the Subscription Fees payable in respect of that Renewal Period;
 - (b) its approved purchase Order information to the Supplier, the Supplier shall invoice the Customer:
 - (i) on the Commencement Date for the Subscription Fees payable in respect of the Initial Subscription Term; and
 - (ii) subject to clause 16.1, prior to the commencement of each Renewal Period for the Subscription Fees payable in respect of that Renewal Period, and the Customer shall pay each invoice within 1 month after the date of such invoice.

- 11.3 If the Supplier has not received payment within 30 days after the due date, then without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the Supplier:
 - (a) the Supplier may, without liability to the Customer, disable the Customer's password, account and access to all or part of the Services and the Supplier shall be under no obligation to provide any or all of the Services while the invoice(s) concerned remain unpaid; and
 - (b) interest shall accrue on a daily basis on such due amounts at an annual rate equal to 3% over the then current base lending rate of the Supplier's bankers in the UK from time to time, commencing on the due date and continuing until fully paid, whether before or after judgment.
- 11.4 All amounts and fees stated or referred to in the Contract:
 - (a) shall be payable in pounds sterling;
 - (b) are non-cancellable and non-refundable, except as expressly provided in clause 11.7 or as otherwise required by applicable law; and
 - (c) are exclusive of value added tax, which shall be added to the Supplier's invoice(s) at the appropriate rate.
- 11.5 If, at any time whilst using the Services, the Customer exceeds the applicable Activities limit specified in clause 5.1, or the amount of disk storage space specified in the Documentation, the Supplier shall charge the Customer, and the Customer shall pay, the Supplier's then current excess data storage fees. The Supplier's excess data storage fees current as at the Commencement Date are set out in the XER Online Contract Summary.

- 11.6 The Supplier shall be entitled to increase the Subscription Fees, the fees payable in respect of the additional User Subscriptions purchased pursuant to clause 4.3 and/or the excess storage fees payable pursuant to clause 11.5 at the start of each Renewal Period upon prior notice to the Customer and the XER Online Contract Summary shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

11.7 11.7 Refunds, cancellations, upgrades and downgrades

For the purposes of clause 11.4(b), for business customers, and unless expressly stated otherwise in the XER Online Contract Summary or required by applicable law:

- (a) all Subscription Fees, renewal fees, upgrade fees, additional User Subscription fees and other charges are final, non-cancellable and non-refundable once paid;
- (b) cancellation of a subscription takes effect at the end of the then-current Initial Subscription Term or Renewal Period and does not entitle the Customer to any refund, credit or reduction for unused time, unused functionality, reduced usage, downgraded plans, or unused User Subscriptions;
- (c) where the Customer upgrades its subscription, purchases additional User Subscriptions, or otherwise increases its subscription level during a Subscription Term, the applicable additional fees are payable for the relevant period and are non-refundable once paid;
- (d) if the Customer subsequently downgrades, reduces User Subscriptions, or removes paid functionality, the change will take effect from the next Renewal Period unless the Supplier agrees otherwise in writing, and no refund or credit will be due for the remainder of the current Subscription Term;
- (e) the Supplier may, in its sole discretion, issue a refund, credit or account adjustment in exceptional circumstances, including duplicate payments, billing errors, or other circumstances accepted by the Supplier, but any such refund, credit or adjustment shall not create any obligation to provide a refund, credit or adjustment in any other case; and
- (f) nothing in this clause limits any remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded.

12. Proprietary rights

- 12.1 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Supplier and/or its licensors own all intellectual property rights in the Services and the Documentation. registered or unregistered), or any other rights or licences in respect of the Services or the Documentation.

- 12.2 The Supplier confirms that it has all the rights in relation to the Services and the Documentation that are necessary to grant all the rights it purports to grant under, and in accordance with, the terms of the Contract.

13. Confidentiality

- 13.1 Each party may be given access to Confidential Information from the other party in order to perform its obligations under the Contract. A party's Confidential Information shall not be deemed to include information that:

19. Waiver

No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

20. Rights and remedies
